The current U.S. housing market and financial crisis have caused tremendous stress and heartache for families across America. If you are one of the millions today affected by the prospect of foreclosure, understand that you are not alone. Now more than ever, you need to find an advocate for you and your family's interests, one who is prepared to handle your specific needs.

Unfortunately, seven out of 10 homeowners in foreclosure proceed without the assistance or advice of real estate professionals. Certified Distressed Property Experts® (CDPEs) have trained extensively to understand the options, solutions, and effective methods for dealing with homeowners facing hardships. Don't risk your financial future and the potential sale of your home with an agent who does not have all the solutions.

CDPEs fully understand that saving a home can save a life, which can save a family, which can create a future.
